

this i dream... for Environment

Illustration by Lisa Desimini

"I tell everyone the same thing that I told my children and their children as they grew up: Leave the world a better place than you found it. If everyone would do that..." -Jane Yolen

"I dream of a world where polar bears, elephants, tigers, and frogs thrive, where environmental issues are afforded the highest national priority, where children have free access to the knowledge necessary to create such a future..."
-Deborah Hopkinson
